Forensic science is the use of advanced scientific techniques during criminal and civil investigations. Forensic science can answer important questions about a any crime and be applied to legal cases that are civil in nature. Forensic science plays an integral role in the criminal justice system. The different States Government and Central Government have developed Forensic Science Labs in India including Central Forensic Laboratories (CFSL), Government Examiner of Questioned Documents (GEQD) State Forensic Science Labs (SFSL) and Regional Forensic Labs (RFSL), but these Govt. Labs are mainly serving for Government Agencies, Courts and Police System, so private agencies and individuals faces many difficulties during investigation process / cross verifying results, as Individuals can not approach the forensic science labs for their private, personal or criminal matters, unless they approach to the police in criminal cases and to courts in civil cases matter. Today, more than 30 million cases are still pending for court trial, Consequently, the courts are becoming overloaded, in these cases 'IFS' is best alternative solution for everyone. Now there is an acute shortage of forensic experts and scientists in the country, so IFS also provides different Education Programs, Courses, Certifications and Training's to become qualified and certified Forensic Scientist or Expert in different disciplines.

The very first concept was launched in year of 2001 with establishment of our formal organization 'MJPBS' (Reg. No. MAHA/11424/2001), after few years pure forensic concepts was represented by AFE in 2007, and Now same forensic concepts with advanced and new services are provided with name of "IFS INDIA" & "Intense Forensic Services India LLP" from year 2009 and as a "International Forensic Sciences" from 2012.

Our Expert Opinions and Reports are acceptable in every court in India and abroad (In India- U/S 45 of Indian Evidence Act)

3) FORENSIC BIOTECHNOLOGY AND DNA FINGERPRINTING -

INTRODUCTION: Forensic science is a vital instrument for the detection or investigation of crime and the administration of justice, providing crucial information about the evidence found at crime scene, it is especially important that the training and education of forensic scientists provide a solid scientific background and a broad base in criminalities. The validity of those results depends on the knowledge, skills, and experience of the forensic scientists working to obtain them. A forensic scientist must be capable of integrating knowledge and skills in the examination, analysis, interpretation, reporting, and testimonial support of evidence. Forensic analysis of biological evidence using biotechnology methods is increasingly important in criminal investigations. DNA forensics is now revolutionizing many aspects of criminal investigation. Analysis of DNA samples allows precise identifications to be made from very tiny bits of evidence collected at the crime scene. The most important legal issues revolve around the constitutionality of compulsory DNA testing at the time of arrest and the use of DNA profiling and population databases in police investigations. These are all Fourth Amendment issues and privacy concerns. Starting in 1999, for example, the U.S. government began taking samples of blood for DNA records on 99.8% of all babies born. According to various web resources- DNA Analyst can earn salary as $62,000 – $75,000 / Year. Supervisory DNA Analyst or Forensic Biotechnologist can earn $6,000 per month. According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, the median hourly earnings of forensic science technicians are about $21.79 per hour and Those in private practice who offer consulting services typically earn more.
